

Instrumental Exam Checklist

I know the date of the exam	Yes	No
I know the time of the exam	Yes	No
I know the exam venue	Yes	No
I know the pieces that I need to play	Yes	No
I know the scales, arpeggios and broken chords that are required	Yes	No
I have practised sight-reading on a regular basis	Yes	No
I have covered the aural test requirements	Yes	No
I have all the music I need for the exam - Please note that you are not allowed to play from photocopies	Yes	No
I have checked with my teacher whether I need an accompanist	Yes	No
If applicable, I have the accompaniment ready to rehearse with the accompanist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Pianists do not need an accompanist - Guitarists may need an accompanist or backing track - Singers and other instrumentalists do need an accompanist or backing track - Remember to check with your teacher well in advance 	Yes	No
If applicable, I have arranged a rehearsal with my accompanist	Yes	No
My instrument is ready for the exam	Yes	No
If applicable, it is in a good state of repair	Yes	No
If applicable, I have spare reeds, strings etc.	Yes	No

If you feel that you would benefit from extra help in the weeks leading up to your exam please discuss it with your teacher and remember, if you have any questions, ask your teacher now - don't leave it until the last minute.

Good luck with your exam